

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

TUESDAY EVENING, DEC. 5, 1882.

ROSSER & McCARTHY,
PUBLISHERS AND PROPRIETORS.

If you have got a spark of sense
You'll quickly go and get,
A seat secured that you may hear
The sparkling Olivette.
The Duc Deffs, and Merrimac,
Bathilde, the Countess fair
And Valentine, will make you feel
It's gorgeous to be there.

A LEXINGTON young man, deeply fascinated is making a tour of Kentucky with Alice Oates' troupe.

A CONCERT and festival for the benefit of the Christian church of Ripley, will be given at that place on Monday evening, December 18th.

THE ferryboat Gretna Green arrived from Cincinnati, Saturday. She has been thoroughly repaired and is now in first-class condition.

REV. W. D. POWERS last night resigned as the pastor of the Church of the Nativity in this city. Mr. Powers has accepted a call to Grace church, near Baltimore.

MR. JOSEPH JAMES has resigned his place in the office of the Central Hotel and is succeeded by Mr. E. P. McMurtry, a very popular young gentleman from Lexington.

LEXINGTON encourages the killing of English sparrows by the boys. These birds are regarded there as a great pest as they are every where else in the United States.

SANT GREEN and Robert McAlister, colored, were before his honor, Mayor January, this morning, charged with breaking the peace. Green was taxed $3. and costs and Bob $1. and costs for the "picnic."

THE Journal printed at Ironton, Ohio, where the Holman Opera Company appeared last week says:

The Holman English Opera Company gave a matinee and two evening performances in the Opera House Thursday and Friday. Their houses were large, and acting excellent. "Pinafore," "Olivette" and "Mascotte" were presented.

THE street railway at Lexington was a success from the start. The Transcript of Saturday says: The street railway will be extended next spring, and Woodlands laid off into building lots. That beautiful addition will, before many years, be the fashionable part of the city.

LEXINGTON Transcript: Col. W. W. Baldwin, of Maysville, is in town. He purchased to-day at Mt. Sterling fifty-three head of strong two-year old mules. Also twenty-three head at Sharpsburg, of Henry English and eighty-four head last week of Geo. Whitney, of Mt. Sterling.

NEAR Owingsville, a few days ago, Ed. Nesbitt, brother of Thos. Y. Nesbitt, of this city, was out hunting with John Ewing and both shot at the same flock of birds. Nesbitt happened to be in the range of Ewing's gun and received a load of shot in his face and head, inflicting very serious wounds.

THE subject of the lecture of Dr. Cottrell at the M. E. Church, South, Wednesday evening, Dec. 6th, is "Discounted Ministries." We judge from this the Doctor will, in his own inimitable manner, puncture shams, unmask the false and develop in a masterly manner the true philosophy of life. Let Maysville meet the lecturer with a responsive audience. Lecture at a quarter of eight o'clock. Tickets for the lecture of Dr. Cottrell can be obtained by applying to Mr. Phillips at the drug store of J. James Wood.

THE Holman Opera Company scored a grand success at the opera house last night in "Patience" the entertainment being the best probably, of the kind, ever given in this city. The house was completely carried by storm and encore after encore was insisted upon. Miss Sallie Holman as "Patience" was a most charming little actress with a fine soprano voice. Mr. Wallace McCreary the tenor, and a very excellent one was repeatedly applauded. Reginald Bunthorne by Mr. J. H. O'Connor was a difficult and perfect piece of acting, as was the part of Archibald Grosvenor by Mr. A. D. Holman. The chorus was strong and well trained, and indeed every part and every feature of the evening's entertainment were well presented and sustained. The singing by little Ellie Lewis, a child of five years, was remarkably well done and favorably impressed every one present with her great musical genius. We have no hesitation in saying that the troupe collectively is the best that has ever visited Maysville. Olivette will be presented this evening and by special request the company will remain and give a matinee, to-morrow (Wednesday) afternoon and also an entertainment at night. "Pinafore" will be presented in the afternoon, with Ellie Lewis as Buttercup. The "Bells of Corneville," will be rendered at night. The matinee admission price is 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children.

AUGUST SCHAEFFER,

Determined to Check the Mighty Tide.

For ten years or more there has been a great rush of people to Cincinnati and other points for buggies and carriage work in general, carrying with them thousands of dollars which legitimately belong to the city of Maysville. In order to prevent this state of affairs and being somewhat encouraged by the sale of one hundred and forty this year, we have ordered (and have now under course of construction) one hundred vehicles from the best manufacturers of the day, to be delivered in time for our grand spring opening, of which, date and dinner will be announced in due time. As the above line of business is to be a future specialty with us we shall endeavor to obviate all the objectionable features encountered heretofore, thus throwing upon this market a class of work that shall not be excelled in quality or price by any house in the west.

Look out for extraordinary bargains during the next thirty days in Farm Wagons and Buggies, for they must be sold before the first of January. All are invited to call, see, buy and get a bargain.

The "Lancet" protests energetically against the habit of smoking cigarettes in the belief that these miniature doses of nicotine are innocuous. The effects produced on the nervous system by a free consumption of cigarettes are stated to be more marked and characteristic than those recognizable after recourse to other modes of smoking, and pulse tracings made after cigarette smoking are flatter and more indicative of depression than those taken after the smoking of cigars.
